

SHORT SPEAKER INTRO: Rev. Patrick D. Clayborn

Rev. Dr. Patrick D. Clayborn is a preacher, teacher, author, scholar, and vision-driven servant leader committed to building the Kingdom of God through spiritual growth, service, stewardship, evangelism, and education.

A native of Memphis, Tennessee, Rev. Dr. Clayborn is a graduate of Morehouse College, Georgia Tech, Candler School of Theology at Emory University, and Drew University, where he earned his Ph.D. in Liturgical Studies with a focus on Homiletics.

He has served in ministry, academia, and pastoral leadership across the AME Church and beyond, including as a professor of homiletics and religion. Since October 2016, he has faithfully served as the proud pastor of Bethel AME Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

Rev. Dr. Clayborn is also a devoted husband to Rev. Dr. Sheri Smith Clayborn, proud father of Patrick II and Joya, and a servant whose life and ministry reflect a deep love for God, family, church, and community.

Please receive Rev. Dr. Patrick D. Clayborn.